Order of Service: A Wedding Ceremony

Service orders often follow a similar format, regardless of what type of ceremony you will have. A basic order of service: a wedding ceremony may follow these guidelines:

- Prelude: Soft music as your guests arrive to your ceremony.
- Processional: The bridal party marches down the aisle.
- Bridal March: The entrance of the bride to the ceremony service site.
- Welcome/Introduction: The officiant welcomes guests, bridal party and couple.
- Exchange of Vows: The couple commits to one another
- Exchange of Rings:
- Pronouncement: The officiant declares the couple married; the couple may kiss.
- Recessional: The couple and bridal party exits to a musical selection.

Common rituals done in wedding services may include:

- Hand-fasting
- Lighting of the unity candle
- Scripture readings
- Reading of a poem
- Moment of silence for lost loved ones
- Honoring parents
- Sand Ceremony
- Music (prelude, postlude, solos, instrumentals, congregational hymns)
